Sam Spady had a wonderful life. She had loving parents and adoring friends. She was a homecoming queen and class president. She had looks, brains, youth and promise. She had everything to live for.

But all that came to a sudden and horrific end in the summer of 2004 when Sam shared too many shots of vanilla flavored vodka, passed out and died alone inside a cluttered fraternity house. Her death was an unintended tragedy.

That's why Patty Spady formed the Sam Spady Foundation--to honor the memory of her daughter and to educate kids, parents, families and friends about the dangers of alcohol. Patty presents a riveting 30-minute documentary called "Death by Alcohol: The Sam Spady Story" in hopes of preventing a similar tragedy from happening to another beautiful child!
